Presented By

Welcome

The Kingston Heirloom Quilters and the Limestone Quilters' Guild welcome you to Quilts Kingston 2023. Our quilt shows are usually held every three years. Due to Covid-19, it has been five years since our last show. Thank you for coming!

Kingston, Ontario

June 2,3 and 4, 2023 at the Royal Kingston Curling Club. Kingston, ON.

Legend

The letter next to the number of the quilt indicates where the quilt is hanging. Look for the letters at the end of each row until you find the one you want. Then look for the number of the quilt. One exception: GC is for Coat Rack by row G.

$ Item is for sale. The price can be found on the quilt label. Visit the Members' Boutique to purchase, or for a map to help locate the quilt. A list of quilts for sale is also available at the end of this document.
 P.22/23 Additional items are for sale in the Boutique

VIEWER'S CHOICE AWARDS - BEST OF SHOW

Please vote for your favourite quilt and place your ballot in the box near the entrance. A CQA ribbon will be awarded to the pieces with the most votes for the Bed and Wall Hanging categories. Two honorary ribbons will be given for the work receiving the next highest number of votes.

Bed Quilts (B)—First place (CQA ribbon), Second and Third receive ribbons

Wall Hangings (W)— First place (CQA ribbon) Second and Third receive ribbons

Miscellaneous Items (M) (eg. Small Quilts, miniatures, wearables, home decor, bags, Challenges) First, Second and Third ribbons

Second and Third Place ribbons, the M Category ribbons and the Rhodes Memorial Award ribbon made by Karen Quattrocchi

RHODES MEMORIAL AWARD (R) A prize of $150 from the Kingston Heirloom Quilters in memory of Margaret Rhodes, co-founder of KHQ, and her husband, Murray. Awarded for Best Hand Stitched Large Bed Quilt, (perimeter greater than 324"); every stitch in the quilt is done by hand. There are three. P.24

Challenges

PRESIDENTS' CHALLENGE

The Presidents of the two quilting groups challenged members to create a fabric art piece using a common idiom, or saying, which the member drew at random during a meeting. The pieces are located in the Hall. Your Challenge is to see if you can guess the idiom of each piece. If you are stumped, you can always use the sheet listing the idioms on the wall in the Hall. Enjoy!

SURVIVING COVID CHALLENGE

During Covid members of both groups challenged themselves to make an art piece on the theme, Surviving Covid, with these restrictions:

- Kingston Heirloom Group Members were to use: Yellow Fabric to represent HOPE
- Limestone Quilters' Guild Members were to use: Blue fabric to represent Calm
- Both groups use: Orange fabric to represent Health and Vitality and Green fabric to represent New Beginnings. And they could use two or three colours in lesser amounts; plus black and white fabric.

Patchwork Quilt

A glimpse of Kingston area quilting history presented by Joanna Dermenjian

Cataraqui Guild of Needle Arts (CGNA)

A Kingston and area teaching guild which explores art with a needle, experimenting with old and new techniques, learning with each other and invited instructors

Lupins and Lacemakers

An offshoot group of the CGNA which promotes and makes lace using bobbins. Members learn from each other and from lacers on the Internet

Kingston Loopers

A Kingston group rug hooking group that meets regularly to promote and practice the art of rug hooking

Modern Quilt Study Group

A group of quilters who meet monthly to study design and techniques that make a quilt 'modern'. We choose monthly challenges to strengthen our skills in creating modern quilts.

Quilts of Valour

Support injured Canadian Armed Forces members, past and present, with quilts of comfort.
